NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULEMAKING

TITLE 10. INVESTMENT

[Notice published December 28, 2007]

The Department of Financial Institutions ("Department") proposes to adopt the proposed regulations described below after considering all comments, objections, and recommendations regarding the proposed action.

PUBLIC HEARING

The Department has not scheduled a public hearing on the proposed action. However, the Department will hold a hearing if it receives a written request for a public hearing from any interested person, or his or her authorized representative, no later than 15 days before the close of the written comment period.

WRITTEN COMMENT PERIOD

Any interested person, or his or her authorized representative, may submit written comments relevant to the proposed regulatory action to the Department. Comments may also be submitted by facsimile (FAX) at (415) 288 – 8830 or by email to pcrayton@dfi.ca.gov. The written comment period closes at 5:00 p.m. on February 11, 2008. Submit comments to:

Paul T. Crayton Staff Counsel Department of Financial Institutions 111 Pine Street, Suite 1100 San Francisco, CA 94111

AUTHORITY AND REFERENCE

Financial Code Section 215 authorizes the Commissioner to issue such rules and regulations consistent with law as her or she may deem necessary or advisable in executing the powers, duties, and responsibilities of the Department. These proposed regulations implement, interpret, and make specific Section 1223 of the Financial Code.

INFORMATIVE DIGEST/POLICY STATEMENT OVERVIEW

This rulemaking action clarifies and makes specific the collateral declared ineligible by the Commissioner referenced in Financial Code Section 1223.

Financial Code Section 1223 states, in part, that an obligation shall not be deemed secured by collateral unless it has not been declared ineligible by the commissioner.

The proposed regulation provides a list of the personal property or the types of personal property the Commissioner declares to be ineligible as security.

DISCLOSURES REGARDING THE PROPOSED ACTION

Mandate on local agencies and school districts: None.

Cost or savings to any state agency: None.

Cost to any local agency or school district which must be reimbursed in accordance with Government Code Sections 17500 through 17630: None.

Other nondiscretionary cost or savings imposed on local agencies: None.

Cost or savings in federal funding to the states: None.

SMALL BUSINESS DETERMINATION

The proposed regulations will not affect small business. The proposed regulations relate to applications by banks and trust companies to acquire their own shares. Government Code Section 11342.610 excludes financial institutions, including banks and trusts, from the definition of "small business."

Significant, statewide adverse economic impact directly affecting business including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses of other states: None.

Cost impacts on a representative private person or business: The Department is not aware of any cost impacts that a representative private person or business would necessarily incur in reasonable compliance with the proposed action.

Adoption of this regulation will not:

- (1) create or eliminate jobs within California;
- create new businesses or eliminate existing businesses within California;
 or
- (3) affect the expansion of businesses currently doing business within California.

Significant effect on housing costs: None.

CONSIDERATION OF ALTERNATIVES

In accordance with Government Code Section 11346.5, subdivision (a)(13), the Department must determine that no reasonable alternative it considered or that has otherwise been identified and brought to the attention of the agency would be more effective in carrying out the purpose for which the action is proposed or would be as effective and less burdensome to affected private persons than the proposed action.

The Department invites interested persons to present statements or arguments with respect to alternatives to the proposed regulations at the scheduled hearing or during the written comment period.
